

Mark O'Leary's Choral Secrets

One day workshop

Saturday 23 November 9.30 am - 3pm

Online bookings: <https://www.trybooking.com/BFQXY>

YOUNG VOICES
OF MELBOURNE

Mark O'Leary has been producing outstanding results with primary, secondary and tertiary age choirs for 30 years, and in this workshop, he will share some of the secrets to his success.

Topics covered will include planning and implementing great rehearsals, creating choral programs that singers will want to be part of, giving inexperienced singers confidence, getting your choirs to sound good, teaching songs effectively and an introduction to choral conducting.

Suitable for leaders of choirs of all ages.

Mark O'Leary OAM is one of Australia's most active choral conductors, widely respected for his work with Young Voices of Melbourne, Exaudi youth choir and Gondwana Voices. With these ensembles has produced fifteen CD recordings, toured all states and territories of Australia and made seventeen international tours to Europe, South Africa, North America, Japan, New Zealand, Singapore, China, Taiwan, Thailand and Samoa. Mark has presented many workshops on choral music education throughout Australia and internationally and is a regular guest conductor at choral festivals.

Mark is a Churchill Fellow, an Honorary Life Member of the Kodály Music Education Institute of Australia and was awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia for services to choral music and education in the 2018 Australia Day Honours list.
