Come to the Music

Thanks to everyone for coming to Bendigo to help the Women of Note celebrate their 20th anniversary. I hope you enjoyed the experience - the audiences certainly enjoyed your singing!

Kodaly Choral Festival - Thursday 29th August

Held every two years, the Kodaly Choral Festival is a concert where school and community choirs come together to enjoy each other's music and the joy of singing together. It's a concert where Exaudi can show singers in school choirs that there are good choirs to join post-school. We will perform two songs (Into the Sky and Peace of Wild things) and join in the combined singing of 'You Will Sing With Us', a new piece by Ben Van Tienen, commissioned for this event. More details are on the calendar.

Kodaly Choral Day with Paul Holley Saturday 7th September

Well known Brisbane conductor Paul Holley will be in Melbourne for a choral day for music teachers and choir conductors. It's very cheap for students! Some of you might be interested, and can find more information at: <http://kmeiavicevents.org.au/2019-workshops/>

Recommended concerts coming soon to the Melbourne Recital Centre

Friday 6th September: Pioneering a cappella group The Swingle Singers (Code CHOIR for $50 tickets)

Friday 13th September: Spinifex Gum with Marliya and Felix Riebl. (check it out at spinifexgum.com)

Marliya has grown out of the Gondwana Indigenous Children's Choir, and Felix is from the Cat Empire.

Their collaboration is interesting, powerful and enjoyable.

September 2019

PLEASE NOTE: For Exaudi to be the best choir it can be it is essential to let Mark know as soon as you read this if you are unable to attend any Exaudi performance. This is essential for our concert planning, as missing persons may necessitate us changing the repertoire for concerts, arranging replacement singers etc. A choir cannot make good music without good communication amongst its members. Concert and Rehearsal Apologies

A reminder that concert and rehearsal apologies are essential! Late concert apologies are unfair and unacceptable. Check your calendar when each newsletter comes out and that is the time to make apologies.
